Training and Information for Survivors of Suicide Facilitators

May 20, 2008 -- Columbia, SC

A comprehensive, hands-on training program to help survivors learn the "how-to's" of creating and facilitating a support group. The program will be conducted by educated and experienced facilitators, and combines lecture, interactive discussion and role-playing with feedback. It is an opportunity to have your questions answered, hear new ideas and practice your skills. It is MHASC's hope that new groups will develop in your area as a result of your participation.

The program is appropriate both for survivors who would like to start a new group, as well as those who currently facilitate a group and would like to increase their knowledge and skills. Mental health professionals are also welcome.

Note: In order to create an environment in which participants can best develop and practice the skills necessary to facilitate a group effectively, we ask that attendees be at least two years after the suicide of their loved one (this training program is not meant to serve as a healing conference).

The program will offered Tuesday, May 20 from 8:30 – 5:00 and will be held at the Mental Health America of South Carolina office, located at 1823 Gadsden St. Columbia, SC 29201. The program includes lunch, beverages and all training materials.

Registration is free but space is limited. Please complete the application form below and return it no later than Tuesday, May 13 to: MHASC, 1823 Gadsden St. Columbia, SC 29201, or fax it to (803) 929-6147. You can also register by phone by calling (803) 779-5363. Applicants will be notified by email or phone if no space is available.

Thank you for your interest and your willingness to give to others. And if you know someone else who might be interested in attending or have other questions, please call Donna Soileau (803) 779-5363, or email dsoileau@mha-sc.org.
