

SOUTH CAROLINA SHARE

Education, Hope, and Support

What is SC SHARE?

We offer hope and recovery to people with mental illness through education.

What do we do?

Education –

- We have written 3 Recovery for Life books that teach a step-by-step approach to recovery, coping skills, and living well in the community.
- We have taught 35 recovery education classes since January 2008 to over 750 attendees.
- We have offered Recovery Planner presentations at each community mental health center around the state to over 1000 staff and clients of the SCDMH system.
- We offer recovery presentations 4 times a week to patients at Bryan Hospital.
- We offer recovery presentations weekly to patients at Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity.
- We offer recovery presentations 2 times a week to patients at Byrnes.
- We offer recovery presentations 2 times a week to patients at Morris Village Hospital.
- We have offered 78 approved contact hours to Certified Peer Support Specialists.
- We have offered community-based, anti-stigma presentations for young adults 18-25 years old who live in Lexington, Richland, Florence, Hampton, Horry, and Greenville Counties.

Hope –

We offer people connections with others who understand what it is like to live with a mental illness but still enjoy a life with meaning and purpose in the community.

Support –

- We offer Certified Peer Mentors who provide one-on-one support for people who want to work on a recovery plan and live in Lexington, Richland, Horry, Florence, Charleston, and Aiken Counties.
- We offer community-based support groups across the state.
- We offer DTR support groups for people with Co-Occurring disorders who live in Lexington, Richland, Georgetown, Horry, and Charleston Counties.
- We offer web-based recovery information and telephone support.
